

Sponsored by the Nashoba Regional School District

Behavior: The Language of Children – Free Workshop!

Presented by: Donna Shea, B.A.

Date: Thursday, April 25, 2019

Time: 6:30-8:00 PM

Location: Florence Sawyer School,
Library

For more information, contact:

Reina R. Rago

Coordinator of Extended Learning

(978) 779-0539 x3356

Children communicate through their behavior. Behavioral problems may occur when we misunderstand what a child is trying to tell us. Adults often find themselves addressing the same behaviors and wondering why a child repeats these behaviors.

This workshop will help get under the behavior and discover what it is a child is trying to tell you. Donna will provide simple, yet effective tools for managing behavior issues.

We encourage you to register on
EVENTBRITE.COM

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/behavior-the-language-of-children-tickets-59227584299>

Donna Shea, Founder of the Peter Pan Center for Social and Emotional Growth, is a pioneer in social coaching, a non-clinical approach to social-emotional learning. Shea's award-winning programs have been helping children achieve social success for over sixteen years.

In addition to holding certifications in bullying prevention, Foundations of Positive Psychology and Cognitive Behavioral Therapy Coaching, she is an author of the How to Make & Keep Friends book series on Amazon.

For more information, visit www.peterpancenter.com or call Donna at (978) 413-1965

