

NASHOBA

Regional School District

08/13/2019

Position: Instructional Assistant – Math Focus
Department/Location: Mary Rowlandson Elementary School
Pay: Bargained Scale
Hours: 32.5 hours per week

Organizational Scope:

Work is assigned by and performed under the direction of the math specialist and classroom teachers.

Position Responsibilities:

- Supports mathematics instruction and programming across the school
- Implements mathematics interventions for individuals and small groups of students
- Employs a variety of instructional techniques as suggested by the classroom teacher or math specialist
- Collect data of students' progress and reports student progress to the classroom teacher or math specialist

Job Qualifications & Physical Demands:

Must be Highly Qualified according to DESE standards. Must be willing and able to physically manage students if needed. Mathematics experience and college degree preferred.

To Apply: Via SchoolSpring. Please see website for link to Schoolspring: www.nrsd.net
Employment Opportunities

Applicants for employment are considered without regard to age, physical, mental or psychiatric disability, genetics, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, national origin, or military status.