Approval of Minutes

Mr Darcy motioned to accept the minutes of October 5, 2017, seconded by Ms Benedick. Vote 8-0-0 Minutes approved

Ms Romasco and superintendant Clenchy addressed the advisory committee to remind the committee of their charge and to reinforce the concept of unity. The message should not be delivered until the whole advisory committee has developed and accepted the presentation for the towns. After the Advisory presents to the towns, they are to reconvene and develop the recommendation to the School Committee, target date, Dec 6.

New Business

a. NRHS Space Needs Task Force Final Report

- a. Overcrowding not an issue. Current High School enrollment is 990
- b. Although 100% of the classes the students request are not always available, due to conflicts, the acceptable percent is low 90's% which NRHS is close to.
- c. It was suggested that the information currently being discussed was not relevant to the task force charge. 'Is there enough evidence of functional obsolescence at the High School to warrant entering into the MSBA, Statement of Interest (SOI), process?’

- d. The district is currently creating a 5 year capital plan for the district, including the High School. Superintendent Clenchy will be forwarding the big ticket, High School Capital plan items, to the Advisory Committee for review. (Upcoming projects – Leaching field, Mechanical Systems, Roof, Windows, etc)

b. NRHS enrollment review
