615(k)(5)	(k) PLACEMENT IN ALTERNATIVE EDUCATIONAL SETTING.— (5) PROTECTIONS FOR CHILDREN NOT YET ELIGIBLE FOR SPECIAL EDUCATION AND RELATED SERVICES.— (A) IN GENERAL.--A child who has not been determined to be eligible for special education and related services under this part and who has engaged in behavior that violates a code of student conduct, may assert any of the protections provided for in this part if the local educational agency had knowledge (as determined in accordance with this paragraph) that the child was a child with a disability before the behavior that precipitated the disciplinary action occurred. (B) BASIS OF KNOWLEDGE.--A local educational agency shall be deemed to have knowledge that a child is a child with a disability if, before the behavior that precipitated the disciplinary action occurred— (i) the parent of the child has expressed concern in writing to supervisory or administrative personnel of the appropriate educational agency, or a teacher of the child, that the child is in need of special education and related services; (ii) the parent of the child has requested an evaluation of the child pursuant to section 614(a)(1)(B); or (iii) the teacher of the child, or other personnel of the local educational agency, has expressed specific concerns about a pattern of behavior demonstrated by the child, directly to the director of special education of such agency or to other supervisory personnel of the agency. (C) EXCEPTION.--A local educational agency shall not be deemed to have knowledge that the child is a child with a disability if the parent of the child has not allowed an evaluation of the child pursuant to section 614 or has refused services under this part or the child has been evaluated and it was determined that the child was not a child with a disability under this part. (D) CONDITIONS THAT APPLY IF NO BASIS OF KNOWLEDGE.— (i) IN GENERAL.--If a local educational agency does not have knowledge that a	BASIS OF KNOWLEDGE <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · A student not yet eligible for special education may be protected under the IDEA if the district had knowledge that the student has a disability. Knowledge may be presumed if, prior to the student’s misconduct that precipitated the disciplinary action, a parent expressed a concern in writing to supervisory or administrative personnel or a teacher of a student. As under current law, the protections also apply if the student’s parent has requested an evaluation. Special Note: The student’s behavior or performance is no longer a standard for a district to be deemed to have knowledge that the student has a disability. Rather, a teacher or other school personnel must have expressed concern about a student’s pattern of behavior. Section 615(k)(5)(B)(iii). EXCEPTION <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · As under current law, knowledge of disability may not be presumed if the district had conducted an initial evaluation and found a student ineligible for special education. Also, the law now states that knowledge of a student’s disability cannot be presumed if the parent has not allowed an initial evaluation, or if the parent has refused special education
